

Chances are, if you have participated in a rehabilitation program following injury, disease or surgery, or if you are active in sports, you have utilized the services of a physical therapist. Today more than ever, physical therapists and physical therapist assistants are an integral part of health care for children, adults and athletes.

Physical Therapist of the Year Call for Nominations

Here is your chance to pay tribute to a therapist who's made a difference in your life or in the life of a loved one.

The 2010 Physical Therapist of the Year will be recognized at the Wisconsin Physical Therapy Association's Spring Conference in Green Lake in April of 2011.

To submit a nomination, forward a letter with your name, address and phone number along with the therapist's name and address where he or she practices. Let us know why they are your physical therapist of the year!
